

What kind of job is it?

Match the questions to five words to describe jobs in exercise 3 page 45 in your textbook.

1. Is it easy to do or difficult to do?
2. Do you have to be sensible and reliable in this job?
3. Does this job make you feel you have achieved good things or not?
4. Do you do the same things or different things every day in this job?
5. Are you likely to lose this job?

The new company building

Student
A

Student
B

The architect in charge of the changes.

You are holding a meeting with the Human Resources manager in order to explain the benefits of moving the headquarters of the company to the suburbs. Talk about all the advantages (more conference rooms, gym facilities, green areas, quieter and bigger offices for all the staff, spacious light-filled cafeteria). Mention some problems you might have to deal with (longer commute, fewer face-to-face meetings with clients.)

Useful Language:

Everybody will definitely / probably ...

The staff certainly won't ...

You might / may (not) have to ...

Human Resources manager

You are holding a meeting with the architect in charge of the project in order to understand the benefits of moving the headquarters of the company to the suburbs. Ask about commute, a company shuttle, the different break-time facilities. Make a comment on the importance that your staff get together with clients regularly.

Useful Language:

Will the employees ...?

We might need ...

The staff will definitely / probably ...

They certainly won't ...

What about you?

In ten years' time ...

- ✓ what kind of job do you think you'll have?
- ✓ where will you live?
- ✓ will you have (more) children?

Do you think ...

- ✓ you'll live to be 100?
- ✓ you'll do the same kind of job until you retire?

Activity 4

Let's get together to study

Student
A

Student
B

English student 1

Your English course is coming to an end and you want to get together to continue studying English over the summer. Make plans to get together to practice. This is your agenda for the next three weeks.

First Week	Second Week	Third Week
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- buy the Christmas presents- set up the Christmas tree- end of the year reunion	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- take a week off at the beach- paint two rooms in your apartment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- organize your friend's birthday party
Allow for some free time to make arrangements.

Useful Language:

I'm ... - ing next week - I'm going to ... - Let's ... - When /What / Why are you ... - ing ...? - I'll ...

English student 2

Your English course is coming to an end and you want to get together to continue studying English over the summer. Make plans to get together to practice. This is your agenda for the next three weeks.

First Week	Second Week	Third Week
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- fly to New York on a business trip- end of the year reunion	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- work overtime every day of the week- complete the medical check-ups	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- nothing planned before hand
Allow for some free time to make arrangements.

Useful Language:

I'm ... - ing next week - I'm going to ... - Let's ... - When /What / Why are you ... - ing ...? - I'll ...

Planning ahead ...

Ask these questions of one another and make additional comments on the answers.

- ✓ What are you doing after class today?
- ✓ Are you going to celebrate your birthday this year?
- ✓ What time are you getting up tomorrow?
- ✓ Are you visiting your doctor any time soon?
- ✓ Are you going to travel abroad on your next vacation?
- ✓ When are you taking your next exam / test?
- ✓ Are you taking up a new course in the next few weeks?
- ✓ Are you going to join a gym soon?
- ✓ Who are you spending your vacation with?

My current job

How many jobs / works have you had?

Which was the best work / job? And the worst?

Are you happy at the place where you job / work now?

Are you changing your work / job soon?

